

Mittuniversitetet

MID SWEDEN UNIVERSITY

Department of Social Sciences

GRADING CRITERIA: SOCIOLOGY

The Mid Sweden University grading criteria are applicable to subject specific learning objectives including examinations.

Grade	Defination	Subject Specifik Criteria: Sociology
A	Excellent	The student demonstrates outstanding in-depth knowledge and understanding of the learning objectives and tasks and can present sociological arguments, demonstrating proficiency in analytical skills.
B	Very Good	The student demonstrates in-depth knowledge in all, or nearly all, learning objectives and tasks. He/She shows good understanding of the concepts and can present sociological arguments, demonstrating proficiency in analytical skills.
C	Good	The student meets with the learning objectives and demonstrates proficiency in some of the learning objectives and tasks. He/She has a satisfactory command of the concepts and can present sociological arguments, showing ability in analytical skills.
D	Satisfactory	The student meets with the learning objectives and tasks and demonstrates proficiency in some of the learning objectives.
E	Sufficient	The student meets with the learning objectives and tasks.
Fx	Insufficient Additional Work Required	The student fails to achieve a satisfactory standard in relation to the learning objectives and tasks. Additional work is necessary to fulfill the required learning objectives and tasks.
F	Insufficient	The student fails to achieve a satisfactory standard in relation to the learning objectives and tasks.