

Mittuniversitetet

MID SWEDEN UNIVERSITY

Department of Social Sciences

GRADING CRITERIA: ECONOMICS

The Mid Sweden University grading criteria are applicable to subject specific learning objectives including examinations.

First Cycle

Grading criteria	Betygskriterier
A	Excellent results corresponding to the requirements of the course learning objectives including superior problem solving skills and aptitude for independent analysis.
B	Very good results corresponding to the requirements of the course learning objectives including factual knowledge applicable in subject contexts.
C	Good results corresponding to the requirements of the course learning objectives including subject knowledge and application.
D	Satisfactory results corresponding to the requirements of the course learning objectives but with limited ability to apply factual knowledge.
E	Satisfactory results corresponding to the requirements of the course learning objectives and factual knowledge, although lacking understanding of appropriate conceptual frameworks.
Fx	Insufficient results regarding the requirements of the course learning objectives, lacking understanding of appropriate conceptual frameworks and overview. Additional work is necessary to attain the required learning objectives.
F	Insufficient results which do not correspond to the requirements of the course learning objectives regarding factual knowledge and the ability to apply it.

Second Cycle

Grading criteria	Betygskriterier
A	Excellent results demonstrating originality in developing or applying ideas in a research context.
B	Very good results in subject specific problem solving applicable in broader contexts.
C	Good results in integrating knowledge, making complex conceptual connections and subject specific logical reasoning.
D	Satisfactory critical analysis and application of relevant factual knowledge.
E	Satisfactory results in developing the ability to apply subject related topics in an original manner.
Fx	Insufficient results in developing the ability to apply subject related topics in an original manner. Additional insight is necessary to attain the required learning objectives.
F	Insufficient results in developing the ability to apply subject related topics in an original manner.